

The last one I just saw in an album years ago and thought it was cute.

There are a bunch of other ones that I plan to take when I go to my parents house

Today 2:58 PM

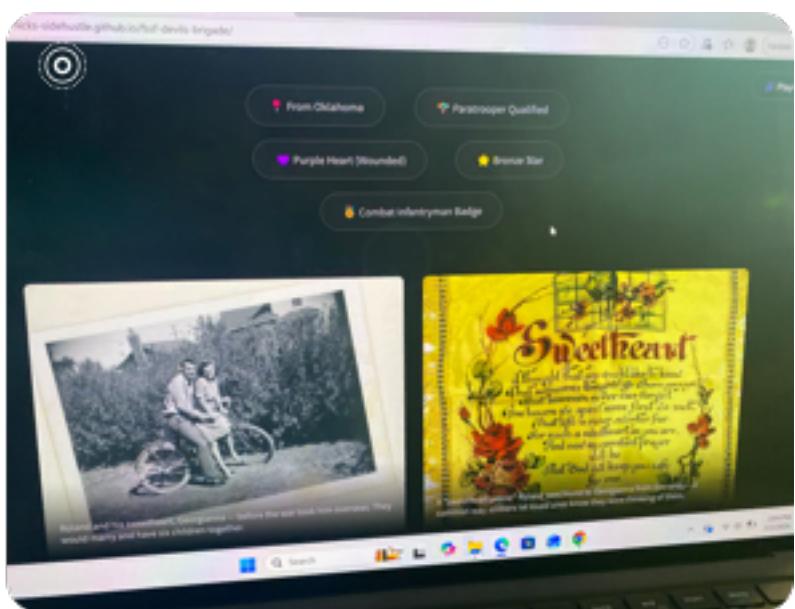

We want it to state they volunteered when asked to serve ... instead of "pulled from their lives"

Delete the last sentence

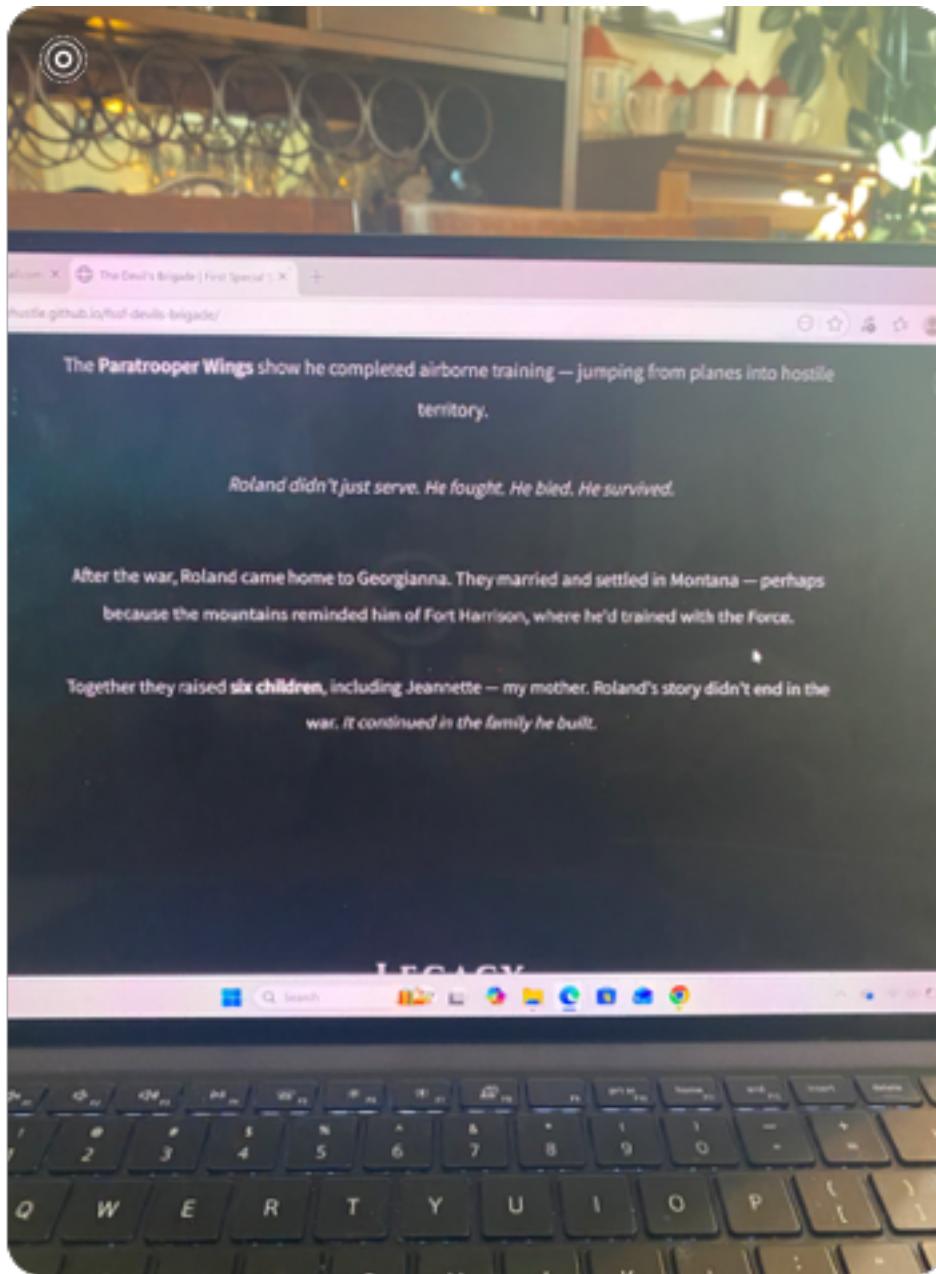

Might need help with the math

We need to spell my grandmas name right - Georgiana

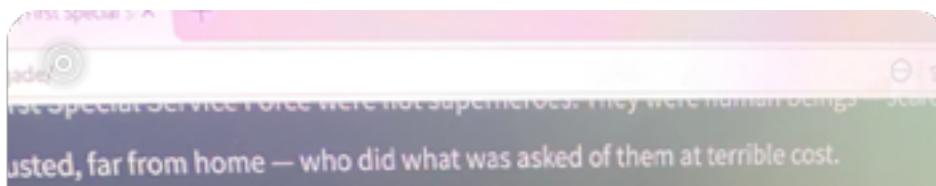

That photo was taken after the war

It's a sweetheart "poem"... not a pillow

Fort Harrison is outside of Helena ... essentially he remained there where he previously trained

You can say, including Jeannette, Dean's grandma

They didn't see themselves as heroes.

They just wanted to survive — and be remembered.

This is for Roland, and for all the men of the Force —
the ones who came home, and the ones who didn't.

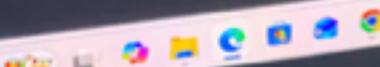

Created with respect for the men of the First Special Service Force

Historical images: U.S. National Archives
Radio broadcasts: Internet Archive (Public Domain)
Resources: FSSF Association | ARSOF History

Search

Can you add "Morgan" after Roland?

Can you add all these metals?

He fought in thirteen major battles in France, Belgium, and Germany (including the Battle of the Bulge). Dad was injured three times during his WWII in Rhineland campaign. Dad was awarded three medals:

He was awarded the following medals and ribbons:

General Order (GO) #6 WD45 Central:

Europe: GO #8 WD45 Southern France:

Alabam Islands: GO #3 WD45 Naples - Foggia:

American Defense Service Ribbon:

Good Conduct Medal:

Purple Heart: GO #7 HQ36 General Hospital 44:

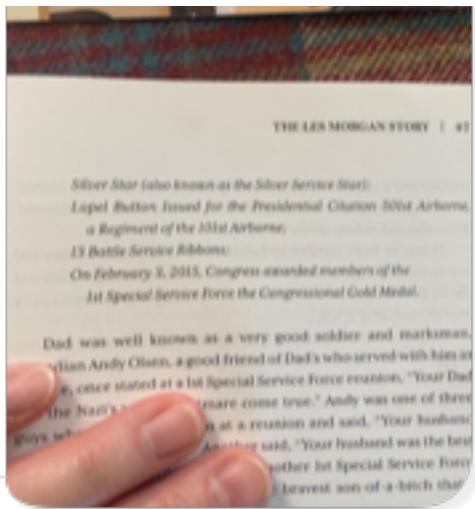

Distinguished Unit Badge: GO #3 HQ 38 USA 45:

AF Service Ribbon:

2 Bronze Service Stars:

EAME Service Ribbon:

Ok

Need to do it a little later today.... Getting nosh back online. Also... I can take Dean to shots now if you want to get norah/... so you can spend more time working on updates notes with your mom

Delivered

No problem